STATE MASTER OF GRANGE IS SPEAKER

the state and national grange organizations in the interests of agriculture and the nation as a whole.

Organized effort he said is essential to progress. Schools churches and all groups and efforts that have become powerful gained their strength through organized effort.

The grange he said has been helping to solve many rural problems. He said the grange had been instrumental in bringing about reductions of federal land bank interest rates and in numerous other matters affecting agriculture had worked in the interests of farm residents.

He said while he was in Washington recently he conferred with federal officials regarding the possibility of obtaining federal funds for farm to market roads—secondary roads that would assure farmers a year around outlet from their farms to markets. Nearly two thirds of the nation's 6,000,000 farms have only part time roads he said.

The grange he continued is now seeking an investigation of farm machinery prices. Machinery costs he declared are at pre-war levels while automobiles have decreased markedly in price in the same period.

In concluding his talk Mr Kirk pointed out that the tremendous responsibility of the grange in wielding part of the great power of the people of the nation was a wonderful opportunity as well as a responsibility and called for grange members to minimize their selfish interests and think in terms of benefit to the entire nation.

Patriots of Peace

Let's renew our pledge of allegiance to our country and readopt the idealism that inspired our forefathers he said. Let us think in terms of loyalty and service. We need patriots in times of peace as well as in war.

Mr Kirk's talk was preceded by a discussion of motor vehicle laws by Paul D Smith legislative agent for Marion county granges. Mr Smith explained the motor vehicle financial responsibility law which will go into effect Aug 20. He said under this law motorists who fail to satisfy within 30 days judgments returned against them as the result of an automobile accident will lose their rights to drive or register an automobile in Ohio unless they prove their financial responsibility by posting of an adequate amount of cash or a bond with the registrar of motor vehicles or by purchase of liability and property damage insurance in amounts required by the law.

He said another law recently passed by the legislature gives the registrar of motor vehicles authority to post stop signs on roads leading into rural thoroughfares extending to rural districts a policy now followed in most cities of requiring side street or side road traffic to stop at thoroughfares.

He also called attention to a number of laws now in effect that are not understood generally by motorists. You can get away with a lot so far as the traffic laws are concerned until you get into an accident and then you suddenly learn about all of the laws you were expected to know about and observe he said.

Other Laws Mentioned

Among those to which he called attention is one requiring motorists to sound their horns before passing another vehicle another requiring motorists to make sure he can proceed in safety before changing the course of his vehicle and still another requiring that motorists in making a left turn pass the center of the intersection before turning their vehicles.

A good slogan in driving he said is Don't press the right of way.

Counties represented at the meeting included Marion Hardin Wyandot Union Delaware Crawford Morrow and Hancock. Kenneth Puckman a rural school music instructor conducted the three-school band in its concert that opened the meeting. A 150-voice Marion county grange chorus directed by Herman Watson, also a rural school music instructor, sang a group of songs. The meeting was in charge of S B Stowe, Pomona grange lecturer and a member of the state grange executive committee. The meeting was the first of a series of district meetings to be held throughout the state to stimulate interest in grange activities.

The Marry-Go-Round

BY HELEN ROWLAND

THE PSYCHOLOGY OF SHORTS

It is not against the law to wear shorts according to a recent court decision in favor of four feminine hikers with a thigh-complex.

Of course not. Neither is it against the law to shave your head or to wear a ring in the nose. Even the duck-billed women of Patagonia were within the law when they cultivated those double-decker lips just for style—and the luring of masculine attention. And that's the phychology of shorts.

Man should have learned long ago that they can't stop women from doing things to make themselves look foolish. Before they have managed to make a law against one sort of atrocity the women have discovered something newer and funnier.

Every woman has two good reasons for not wearing shorts. No I don't mean what you mean. One reason is that they are the most uncomfortable garment ever invented—chilly on cool days and binding in all weathers. And the second reason is that the human thigh is just about the ugliest and most unalluring member of the human body. The only really alluring thigh is that of a lamb when it is covered with mint sauce.

Even a man in long shorts is not irresistibly captivating—and a woman in short shorts is almost a pain in the eye. Half a thigh is better (to look at) than eight or ten pounds of bone muscle flesh freckles and mosquito bites.

I have often wondered just what the average man's reaction is to a large window dispaly of the full length feminine leg. And I have found by the Helen Rowland method deduction that it is of three varieties.

To one type of man any woman in shorts is a joke. Like a cartoon or a comic strip she is just funny —and the fatter the funnier. If she's his own wife, he closes his eyes and chuckles. If she isn't he merely chuckles.

Another sort of man may find the frank revelations of the undraped thigh disturbing or intriguing, but scarcely ravishing. His emotional reaction could never for a moment be mistaken for romance or even for admiration.

But, to most men the sight of large expanses of sun tanned skin is getting to be intensely boring. It robs them of their illusions and leaves them cold. They are tired of being constantly flagged by legs.

If shorts were actually comfortable, if they really gave a woman more freedom, more ease, more grace and more charm than sport skirts, their grotesqueness could be forgotten and forgiven. But shorts are not a comfort or a privilege, they are just one more way that woman has found of making herself uncomfortable and "funny looking."

Yet women [illegible] shorts [illegible]

MOUNTS MAKES TAX DIVISION

Revenue from Three Sources Distributed by County Auditor.

Distribution of revenue from three different state taxes was being completed today in the office of County Auditor Harry V. Mounts.

The auditor said these distributions are "routine" and that the amounts to be received by subdivision are in line with the expectation of officials and consequently the revenue would make little or no change in the financial condition of the subdivisions.

One check for $3,299.18 came from the state sales tax, the fifth check this county has received to date from that source for distribution among subdivisions. The city receives $2,119.52 of the total, the county $615.03 and the remainder is divided among villages and townships.

An additional $2,544.85 came from selective sales taxes to retire county poor relief bonds.

Another source of funds was the annual distribution of money from the sale of cigaret licenses in the year ended July 10. On this distribution the state received $2,035.21, half of the total, while one-fourth or $1,055.78 went to the county and the remaining one-fourth to the subdivisions in which the licenses were sold. The distribution among subdivisions follows: Marion, $749.06; Agrata, $16.88, Caledonia, $30.91, Green Camp, $12.37; LaRue, $35.90, Morral, $6.10, Prospect, $25.06, Waldo, $35.30, Big Island township, $13.80; Grand Prairie township, $15.46; Marion township, $25.68; Montgomery township, $17.43; Pleasant, Richland, Scott and Tully townships, $5.19 each; Waldo township, $3.84.

COURT NEWS

The Stars Say--

For Tuesday, July 9

A VERY lively and progressive day in the matter of getting new projects under way is read from the prevailing planetary operations. While all pertaining to writings, publishing, publicity and promotions are under high stimuli there is danger in indulging this pressure to unfavorable pitches of impetuosity and recklessness. Let calmness and poise rule if success is expected. Be careful as to litigation. Elders may cause some concern, but friendship is seen to have "a happy ending."

Those whose birthday it is are promised a year of excellent opportunity for accomplishing important projects. All pertaining to writings, publishing and promotion have a lively impetus to success but this stimulus carried to extremes of impetuosity and rashness may lessen the good prospects.

A child born on this day may be versatile, energetic and have an intense and high strung nature, calling for early discipline.

Notable nativity: Macklyn Arbuckle, actor.

FINGERS CAUGHT IN PULLEY.

MT. VICTORY, July 8—Joan, three-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Wilkerson, suffered a badly lacerated hand Wednesday when her fingers were caught in a hay pulley.

Broadening

It [illegible] congressmen responsible for drawing up the tax bill President Roosevelt wants enacted this session that revenue is the main objective. In other words committeemen are expected to squeeze out as much money as possible from inheritance taxes, higher income taxes and higher corporation taxes. It will mean broadening the base of the new taxes more than was anticipated at first.

Insistence on revenue, of course, is the administration's first reply to the almost universal charge that its tax program was introduced at this time for purely political reasons. That charge, of course, was unreasonable; no administration would overlook the possibility of revenue. Mr Roosevelt was killing two birds with one stone. He was equally interested in both birds.

He can advise broadening of the tax base for the purpose of obtaining a greater amount of revenue without endangering the political effect of his proposal for imposing heavier taxes on large incomes and inheritances. At the most the number of persons affected is too small to be a political factor. It is easy to ignore their protests against what obviously is class taxation.

But where will broadening ultimately reach its limits? That is a question which President Roosevelt might not like to answer at this time. He knows as well as every intelligent man familiar with the subject knows that the United States, unless it intends to ruin itself by direct inflation, is going to be forced to broaden its income tax base until it includes virtually every income level. At present approximately one fifth of one per cent of the nation's voting population pays three fourths of the income tax. Budgets never were balanced with a tax base as narrow as that.

Heavier taxes, therefore, have limited usefulness for political purposes. The possibilities of soaking the rich will be exhausted speedily. Perhaps that explains why President Roosevelt seemed overly anxious to make a start. The next move will be directed at a group numerically stronger. Eventually income taxes will penetrate to a point where no man with earning power will be able to escape. By starting at the top the President gratifies taxpayers at the bottom, but their turn is coming.

Rift

The Lone Star state's Rep. Patman, indefatigable friend of the war veteran, seems intent on proving his friendship at any cost. Speaking to members of the American Legion on Independence day he charged their national commander, Frank N. Belgrano, and their capable lobbyist, John Thomas Taylor, with defeating his bill for full payment in cash of adjusted service certificates.

It's not necessary to go into the fact that the American Legion has internal problems like all other organizations. When the best known legislative representative of organized veterans openly invites revolt it seems inevitable that sooner or later those problems will be given an airing. When that happens it is possible an interesting fact may be more fully revealed than it ever has been before.

World war veterans are not all bonusites, contrary to what some times has been prevailing opinion. Many veterans feel that they have been deprived of their voice by the incessant clamor of their brethren for a privilege they themselves do not lack. Though Rep. Patman has not been one of their heroes in the last few years he unintentionally may be clearing the air for them to make known the fact of their existence. That would give an ironic twist to Mr Patman's apparent bid for leadership of one group of organized veterans.

Perilous

The Student League for Industrial Democracy, an imposing title if nothing else, is [illegible] its hands by accepting [illegible] of the $50,000,000 which will be [illegible] by the National Youth Administration, latest new deal alphabetical agency. NYA [illegible] is [illegible] to get control of [illegible] people [illegible] to the freedom of [illegible] action of American students.

The [illegible] gratitude for [illegible]. Obviously the Student League for Industrial Democracy [illegible] be more interested in [illegible] the courts than in [illegible]. Otherwise [illegible] would add its cheers to those already [illegible] in the pleased ears of [illegible] organizers. The only point to [illegible] of young people is in connection with [illegible] will be a Democrat [illegible] the same possibility that exists in all [illegible] of activity.

If the Student League for Industrial Democracy [illegible]

The Sherrill Reports

[illegible]

[illegible] larger [illegible] has [illegible] $2 [illegible] and [illegible]. The $[illegible] saving is effected [illegible] of the new tax [illegible] amounting to $[illegible] saving of $[illegible].

[illegible] could be added [illegible] according to the [illegible] 2 per cent [illegible] of [illegible] it [illegible] a [illegible] means of bringing Ohio to meet its expenses without adding directly to the burden of taxation.

The first of the Sherrill reports is gratifying. Much is said about what could be done if government were organized and operated like a private business for efficiency. If it would be possible to save more than a million dollars in the tax expenses in Ohio may become convinced that it should be one of the first states really to do something about cleaning up its government. The good faith of the politicians is going to be put to a severe trial when all the Sherrill committee's reports have been published.

A Step

President Roosevelt's official send-off for the Wagner labor disputes act adds another note of uncertainty to the legislation's dubious future. It does not cover all industry and labor, the President points out, but is applicable only when violation of the legal right of independent self organization would burden or obstruct interstate commerce.

That admission, made in recognition of the supreme court's grounds for its unfavorable ruling in the Schechter case, indicates what will be, from organized labor's standpoint, a major difficulty in enforcing the labor disputes act. It will be challenged frequently in the courts. In every contested case the government will have to bear the burden of proof showing that interstate commerce is affected.

The real weakness of the legislation has not been pointed out by any spokesman for either the government or the American Federation of Labor, which calls the act labor's Magna Charta. That is the fact that it assumes a responsibility on the part of organized labor which does not always exist in fact and fails to protect employers against failures in the proper exercise of labor's responsibility as one party to collective bargaining. The act, in other words, defines the rights of only one party to a two party contract.

It is nevertheless, in the opinion of its backers, a step in the right direction. Time will prove whether or not that is true. If the apprehension of the law's critics is founded on anything more substantial than fear it may turn out to be a step that would better have been taken with more consideration for the realities of the relationship between management and labor. Those realities will not be changed but only made more difficult to handle by a law which in many ways openly disregards them.

Behind The News In

Washington And Wall Street

BY PAUL MALLON

WASHINGTON, July 8.—Politics has always been run here on a friendly basis.

The bosses [illegible] part and the subbosses take care of their friends. It is a traditional custom, for instance, for a president to hand out political favors to congressmen who support him. Sometimes these favors are offered before the congressman has voted on a particular question and he did assume some of the aspects of a gentle barter.

Everyone knows about this, but certainly not the congressman. There is an unwritten law against it. If the congressman preaches he becomes somewhat like an employe who [illegible] on the boss for having offered him a favor. The rare snitcher rules himself out as far as any future favors are concerned.

Threat

It looked as if this pleasant working agreement was upset the other day when the house directed its rules committee to find out if agents of the President offered any favor or disfavor to Democratic congressmen for their votes on the holding company bill.

However, you may relax and rest assured that tradition is not being cast to the wind. Some of the Democratic congressmen are getting tired and fussy, but they have not reached the stage where you may expect them to do any important tattling, whether or not there is any ground for it.

You can not expect them to line up outside the rules committee today on any proposition like that.

Explanation

What threw everyone off was the stress given to an assertion by Representative Brewster that a presidential agent threatened to stop a relief project in his Maine district unless Brewster voted the way the President wanted. (This was later denied by the agent, Thomas Corcoran.)

Mr. Brewster's statement does not place him exactly in the category of a preacher. In the first place he is a Republican. In the second, an overlooked portion of his statement gave the reason behind it quite fully. He said he was making the charge because he did not want [illegible] to happen to interrupt his relief project. Thus he placed the new dealers in a position where they cannot very easily stop work on the experiment [illegible] for political reasons. So the [illegible] Mr. Brewster was [illegible] a preacher [illegible] purpose.

But the charge was subject [illegible] that [illegible] the house leadership off guard. [illegible] had to be ordered for face-saving purposes [illegible].

Gossip

[illegible] congressmen [illegible] confirmed gossips. [illegible]

[illegible] point out among themselves [illegible] politics.

There is no question that the [illegible] ways and means committee would [illegible] the plan on the [illegible] shelf if it were not for the fact that a certain promise has been made to La Follette. [illegible] the committee will take up the [illegible] session and [illegible].

Few insiders would be surprised if the committee discovered about two weeks hence that the measure is too big to be handled so expeditiously. There is a strong chance that a sudden adjournment of congress may be effected when all other pending business is cleared up.

Tipping

The man behind the interrogation in the Virgin Islands investigation is former Director Brown of the bureau of efficiency. For two [illegible] prior to the present inquiry Brown has been conferring from time to time with [illegible]. Brown has supplied much data hostile to Gov. Pearson, who is an old political enemy of his.

Digs

A leading utility lobbyist met a government lobbyist in the capitol corridor a few days ago. The government man ironically congratulated the utilities man on his victory, saying: "You utilities certainly turned the heat on our congressmen, didn't you?"

The utility lobbyist ardently denied this and also suggested as slyly as he could that he saw no evidence of pressure on the part of the government to influence congressmen.

"Of course not," said the government man.

They shook hands and the utilities lobbyist observed in parting: "But what a couple of liars we are."

NEW YORK, July 8.—New York attention will focus this week on the pending battle over the AAA amendments. The chief point at issue is the provision to empower the secretary of agriculture to fix prices. This is supposed to be a constitutional substitute for the processing powers in the original draft which even AAA officials privately concede never have been upheld in the courts. Astute observers doubt that the substitute will be any more acceptable legally. Harry Byrd of Virginia—leader of the anti-new deal Democratic bloc in the senate—will lead a determined fight to kill it. Without it the AAA would be practically impotent.

Heads of several farm groups are privately peeved at the way this AAA business is working out. [illegible] induced them to commit themselves in favor of the AAA amendments in principle. Since then they have been so drastically revised [illegible]. [illegible] rural chiefs don't care much for the new idea—but the administration is holding them to their commitments.

In fact strong pressure is being exerted to get them to come out openly for the amendments in their latest form. The farm leaders feel that [illegible]

Lobbying

It's a wee opportunity to portray him as an ubiquitous [illegible] of radical [illegible] the charge of improper lobbying [illegible] with glee that the house investigation of lobbying [illegible] is in the hands of the rules committee. [illegible] headed by Tammany veteran John J. O'Connor—not too friendly to the White House [illegible] Wall Street will bet 5 to 1 that [illegible] administration [illegible] harder than power propagandists. Utility men are not worried about the inquiry. They claim they are willing to stack their lobbying methods against the government any old time.

Overplayed

Conservatives were startled by the size of the house majority against the President. They had hoped for a victory—but expected it to be close. Still more surprising and encouraging from the New York viewpoint—was the fact that the record vote for the President [illegible] than the teller vote [illegible] to give representatives the shelter of secrecy.

Several observers believe [illegible] new papers [illegible] the President a disservice [illegible] teller vote [illegible] congressional resentment [illegible] courage to join the majority by showing them how many of their [illegible] colleagues were lined up on that side of the fence.

Several congressmen have told New York contacts that complaints from constituents ran as high as [illegible] against the death sentence. There were plenty [illegible] who believe Mr. Roosevelt will make a bad mistake if he uses this as a campaign issue next year. There are many indications—apart from obvious propaganda—that a public reaction has set in [illegible] question.

Lotteries

The movement to legalize lotteries—headed by Mr. Oliver Harriman—has strong backing from [illegible]. A number of wealthy women are deeply interested. Private hospitals in New York are running [illegible] deficits—and it's getting harder and harder to raise money.

The House of David club arrived in Marion [illegible] ready for the game here. The visitors have been piling up a [illegible] record of victories in its road trip this summer.

Facing the finest aggregation all [illegible] baseball players of Marion [illegible] with a [illegible] of hurlers and a [illegible] the Marionites should give the visitors a hard tussle. To predict victory for the Marionites may [illegible] be stretching imagination too far.

Longenore, Van Stoy and Fetter will probably see action on the mound and McAninch, Galliant, Marshall, Roseberry and Sheup will work in the infield. Peary, Hatfield, Harbin and Carls are expected to cover the outer gardens.

Among the stars to appear here tonight will be Eddie Deal, catcher and captain of the club since 1929, and Dave Harrison, third baseman and veteran of 12 years with the House of David club. Deal is a former Three I and Mississippi league player. Harrison was batboy for the visitors when they formed their club in 1914.

Since 1924 Harrison has traveled more than 18,000 miles annually with the team and has played in every state in the United States and Canada. He has played against many major and minor league teams and the fastest semi-pro clubs in the country. During this period he has maintained a remarkable batting average of .345.

Much interest is being shown in the game this afternoon at Lincoln park and a large crowd is expected to be on hand to watch the bearded team stage its exhibition of clever and comedy playing.

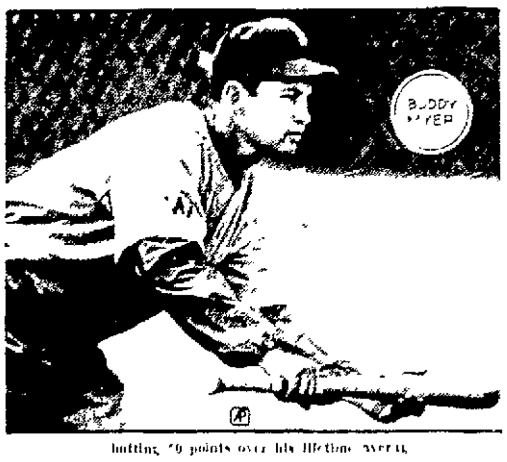
TRACK EVENT OPENS AT NORTH RANDALL

By The Associated Press

CLEVELAND, July 8.—Historic North Randall race track, which first played host to the Grand Circuit in 1909, welcomed the trotters and pacers back today with a program of five races in the one week meeting.

For the first time in the history of the track daily double and quinella mutuel tickets will be sold. A $1,000 stake feature, the Plain Dealer 2:15 pace, was the headliner of today's card with 17 horses entered. The big line came here from Toledo, where a fast meet was held last week.

Third Time at Bat Is Lucky for Buddy Myer



[illegible] hitting 50 points over his lifetime average.

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON.—[illegible] as long as Charles Solomon (Buddy) Myer, the Senators' dashing field captain and second baseman, is able to get three trips to the plate per game he figures he'll keep up the sensational batting pace that finds him nearing midseason with a hitting average some 50 points better than his lifetime average.

Senatorial team mates have taken to calling Buddy "Third Time Myer," having noted his flair for getting his regular base hits oftenest on his third trip to the dish on any given day. For three successive days against the New York Yankees Myer got his only base knocks in his third AP.

In his sensational consecutive game hitting streak, which extended through 19 games, only five times did he fail to get a hit on his third time up.

But his flair for the third time charm is by no means Buddy's only claim to distinction this season, his tenth with the Senators. His batting mark is hovering around the .350 figure which means he is second or third among the league's leading hitters most of the time and his hits have been timely, too. His run batted in total nearing 60 at the Fourth of July, [illegible] point was exceeded only by the slugging Hank Greenberg of Detroit and Bob Johnson of the Athletics.

Myer, who is 31, is an [illegible] Mississippi boy, who popped direct from Mississippi A. & M. college to the Cleveland Indians in 192?, refused to be farmed out to Dallas, signed as free agent with New Orleans and was picked up by the Senators the same year. He's been with the Nats ever since except for 1928 and part of 1927 when he did some third basing for the Boston Red Sox.

BOZZELL TO MATCH TACTICS WITH ORTH

Tough Wrestlers Will Headline Local Mat Program Tonight

Paul Bozzell, the Oklahoma bad man who has been finding disfavor recently among Marion wrestling fans for his vicious mat tactics, will have his reputation as a tough hombre at stake tonight when he meets Paul Orth of Cleveland at the outdoor arena on Uncapher avenue.

Should weather prohibit holding the double main feature program outdoors the card will be staged at the Steam Shovel gymnasium. Bad Boy Brown of Louisiana will meet Dr. Barney Cosneck in the second hour and a half tussle. A 20-minute opener will get under way at 8:30 o'clock.

A large crowd is expected to see Orth, Tarzan of the wrestling pad, attempt to match rough play with Bozzell. Orth, who has participated in numerous rough matches here, will probably give the Oklahoman all of the mean tricks he can call into use.

The match between Bad Boy Brown and Cosneck has been attracting considerable interest among local fans. It is the first appearance of Brown here in more than two years.

SCHMELING WINS BOUT WITH UZCUDUN

By The Associated Press

BERLIN, July 8.—Max Schmeling, the dark-visaged slugger of Germany, has added Paulino Uzcudun to his list of victims but has lost prestige in the eyes of Nazi fistic followers.

The German battered the Spanish woodchopper around a Berlin ring for 12 rounds yesterday, bruised and cut his face, but failed to even knock him to his knees. Instead of crumpling, Uzcudun continually moved within the long arms of Schmeling and belted his body with short rights and lefts. Several times he drove the former champion into the ropes.

Schmeling, who weighed 190½ as against 203 for his opponent, claimed he had been struck a low blow in the sixth round that sapped his strength and decreased his effectiveness during the late rounds. The crowd of 65,000, including high Nazi officials, which had cheered lustily when Schmeling entered the ring, accorded him only mild applause as he left the ring after his uninspiring victory.

17-Year-Old Boy Hands Medica Three Defeats in A. A. U. Meet

By The Associated Press

DETROIT, July 8.—Fifteen swimming and diving stars, the cream of the contestants in the National A. A. U. championships which closed last night, began training today under Coach Robert Kiphuth of Yale university to represent the United States in a three-day international match with the best natators of Japan.

The meet, which will take place in Tokyo Aug. 1-19, will follow preliminaries in Osaka, Japan. Flanagan, a 17-year-old high school boy, handed Medica his third straight defeat of the meet. The West Coast flash, defending three titles, dropped two of them to Flanagan, who nosed him out in the 880-yard free style and the mile event. Medica lost the 440-yard free style to Macionis, a Yale university swimmer.

Flanagan was clocked in the 880-yard race at 10:07.6, which was an unofficial world mark for the long course. Medica holds the listed world and American long course record of 10:1?.?.

Softball Teams Face Big Tests in Games This Week

Considerable shifting of teams in league standings and plenty of hard fought games are expected before the four-day schedule in city softball circuits is completed this week.

With a record four-day calendar arranged for softball fans, many aggregations will receive severe tests of their strength in twilight and night encounters this week. Three double header programs have been arranged under the lights in the 13-game schedule.

If the weatherman will permit the entire program to be run off, postponed games will be cut heavily and fans will be in a position to more readily pick the teams to finish high in city leagues. Although no team has even neared a cinching of its league title, the outcome of this week's program should aid followers to pick out the clubs which will finish near the top.

Vie in Church Leagues

In the twin bill feature tomorrow night championships of the two church leagues will be hotly contested. Appearing in one of the outstanding bargain bills of the week will be the Presbyterians against the St. Mary team and the Epworth Bishops against the Oakland aggregation.

The league-leading Presbyterians is expecting to get one of the biggest tests of the season when it faces the strong Irish team at 8:30. St. Mary, trailing by one game, can even matters in its circuit by defeating the Presbies, while another victory for the leaders will send them considerably closer to the championship.

The Epworth Bishops will get a chance tomorrow night in the second game to climb into the No. 1 Sunday School League lead. The Bishops will meet Oakland for the first time this season while For[illegible] [illegible] Lane [illegible] A clash is expected next week when the Bishops and [illegible] Lane meet in a game which will go a long way toward settling league supremacy.

Despite its apparently safe place at the top of the [illegible] the [illegible] M[illegible] has a fight on hand games ahead. The [illegible] Tuesday night [illegible] the [illegible] The We[illegible] had an easy time with the Huber team in their first meeting but a severe [illegible] is expected this week.

Second of the night doubleheaders will find the Huber team crossing bats again with the Steam Shovel [illegible] and two [illegible] teams battling Wednesday night when the Westinghouse Cubs and Saratoga Grill outfits fight it out. This will be the first meeting this season of the four teams.

Free Program

A free program which is expected to pack Lincoln park is scheduled for Friday night. The Elks will oppose the Centennial Coal team and Pleasant Lutherans, now tied for the lead in the Commercial League, will face the peppy Saratoga Grill team.

The softball commission, handicapped by bad weather since spending $2,000 for lights and bleachers at Lincoln park, hopes to create added interest in softball through its program this week. Tonight's games were postponed because of the All Star game in Cleveland and the appearance of the House of David club here.

Failing to obtain the support expected, the commission plans to give fans several sports attractions in the next two months at Lincoln park in an attempt to clear itself of debt. Tourneys, traveling teams and special programs will be introduced. It is believed that business people who have been asking for night games for several years will take advantage of a cool outing under the lights to a greater extent during the next two months.

NEW MARION BALL CLUB WINS OPENER FROM RICHWOOD NINE

Steam Shovel Team Pounds Out 11 to 7 Victory at Lincoln Park

The newly organized Marion Steam Shovel baseball team got away to an impressive start yesterday afternoon at Lincoln park by defeating the Richwood club 11 to 7 in a fast game.

Richwood took its second defeat of the season as the Marion players touched Earl Castner for 13 hits. Warnell and Fetter shared the mound work of the local club. The visitors scored all of their runs in the fourth while the Diggers had four run and five run batting sprees in the fourth and seventh innings.

Cotrol Carls hit a home run for the Marionites and F. Allgoeer for the visitors.

FRISCH, FANS FORGET ANGER TOWARD DIZZY AFTER RELIEF WORK

Rebellious "One" Stars as Cards Rally To Top Reds, Indians Finally Win

BY HUGH S. FULLERTON JR.
Associated Press Sports Writer

One of the [illegible] things about Frankie Frisch's job of managing the Cardinals must be that it is so hard to stay angry at Dizzy Dean.

The elder brother of the famous pitching pair has developed quite a habit of getting himself in wrong with the manager and the fans by displays of temperament but each time he pitches his way back into their good graces.

Last month he had a row with his teammates in Pittsburgh and the fans tossed lemons at him when he returned, only to forget the anger in their pride over his pitching.

Diz Comes Through

Yesterday they weren't prepared to toss anything more damaging than resounding boos when Diz relieved Jess Haines in the fourth inning of the opening game against the Reds, his first appearance after his recent exhibition game "rebellion" at St. Paul.

But Old Diz checked the Cincinnati rally and gave only three hits through the rest of the game while the Cards won 9 to 4. Brother Paul followed him and outpitched Paul Derringer with the aid of enemy errors for a 5 to 1 victory.

The double triumph settled the Cards firmly in second place seven games behind the Giants, who recovered from two defeats to trim Brooklyn 9 to 2. Mel Ott's [illegible] home run made with the bases full played a big part in the Giant victory which finally brought Carl Hubbell his tenth victory of the season.

The Cubs regained third place, pounding Cy Blanton and four Pittsburgh hurlers for 14 hits and winning 13 to 1 as Bill Lee gave only seven blows.

The Phillies completed a shakeup in the standing by trouncing the Braves 9 to 1 behind Curt Davis's six hit flinging and moved into sixth place ahead of Cincinnati.

The Tigers continued to dominate the American League by slamming down the Browns 12 to 5, although they were outhit 15-14. Julius Solters walloped three home runs to account for all the St. Louis tallies.

Indians Split

It was the tenth straight victory for Detroit but it failed to reduce the Yankees' one game margin. The league leaders bowled over the Senators 11 to 1 with Lou Gehrig and Tony Lazzeri each hitting a homer.

The other clubs broke even in doubleheaders without altering the standings. Chicago's rapidly recovering White Sox downed Cleveland 2 to 0 with a sensational fielding display behind Ted Lyons. They extended their winning streak to seven straight and Cleveland's string of losses to eight, but the Indians broke both strings with a 7 to 6 triumph in the loosely played afterpiece.

Lefty Grove's relief hurling and Bill Werber's flashy base running enabled the Red Sox to take a 13-inning opener from the Athletics 7 to 6. Philadelphia replied with a 3 to 1 victory on homers by Pinky Higgins and Charley Berry. The Sunday law ended this game after the eighth inning.

MARION TEAM TOPS MIFFLIN RED SOX, 7-1

Game at Upper Sandusky Cut Short in Sixth Inning

Rain cut short the baseball game between the Ritz Grill team and the Mifflin Red Sox yesterday afternoon at Upper Sandusky with the Marionites on the long end of a 7 to 1 score. Six innings were played before the game was halted.

The Marionites hit Swavel hard in the fourth inning to score four runs. Jimmy Kunkle connected for a home run in the sixth with none aboard.

WELL - THAT'S THAT! IMAGINE - CALLING ME UP HERE - DEMANDING THAT I COME HOME AT ONCE SO THAT SHE CAN USE THE CHAUFFEUR - WHEN I GOT MARRIED, ANDY - I MARRIED MILLIE - NOT HER MOTHER -
WELL - IT'S TIME SOMEBODY TOLD THAT OLD DRAGON WHERE TO GET OFF -
I'VE TAKEN ALL THAT I'M GOING TO TAKE FROM THAT WOMAN - SHE'D BETTER LEARN THAT FOR ONCE AND FOR ALL!
WELL - I CERTAINLY ADMIRE YOUR STAND - IT TOOK YOU TIME BUT YOU'VE FINALLY COME TO YOUR SENSES AND STARTED SHOWING THE TRUE GUMP SPIRIT -
YOU KNOW WHAT THEY SAY - ONE THORN OF EXPERIENCE IS WORTH A WHOLE WILDERNESS OF WARNING -
YOU SURE LEARNED YOUR LESSON -
WELL, ANDY - MAYBE - I DIDN'T PASS MY EXAMINATIONS - BUT I'M STILL AT THE HEAD OF THE CLASS OF THOSE WHO FAILED -

[illegible]ADY MADE WIFE

BY CORALIE STANTON

[illegible]

ager — Maiden Lane that morning and that they were going to rehearse again for the suburban run in a week's time.

Laurie said nothing more about the pin.

But two mornings later when Glad had gone out early to spend the day with one of her girl friends in the troupe and Laurie was helping Mrs. Budd to make the beds before she left for the office, she stayed behind to tidy up Glad's room and saw a glittering object at the bottom of the wardrobe.

It was a gold cigaret case. A very expensive looking one, obviously real. Glad's initials were engraved on it.

Laurie frowned and a pang of uneasiness shot through her. It was a beautiful thing, as simple and costly as the handbag Mr. Alber had given at Easter.

But this was quite a different matter. She herself was only an ordinary girl whom nobody would look at twice. And Mr. Alber had been pleased with her work and it was because he thought so much of Rex Moore that he was so kind to her.

But Glad, who drew all men's eyes with her beauty, who was so young, who naturally loved pretty, costly things.... Laurie could hardly contain herself all day until she got back to the flat.

But Glad was not there. She did not come back to dinner, nor until 10 o'clock. Laurie saw awful visions, lived through an age of fear and was so keyed up as to be hysterical when the girl did appear, as fresh and slender as a young peach tree, greeting her sister with her enchanting smile.

Sorry I'm late. I've had a great time. Nelly's brother took us to the pictures. I've had my food.

Who gave you that gold cigaret case? interrupted Laurie, speaking sharply in her anxiety. I found it lying in your wardrobe. It must have cost pounds and pounds.

I don't see what it's got to do with you, old girl, retorted Gladys huffily. I suppose it dropped out of a pocket. I don't carry it about. Makes me look too rich.

Don't be silly, Glad. You must know you can't take presents like that from men.

How do you know a man gave it to me? Good Lord, I'm not a baby! I earn my own living.

But Laurie was not to be put off.

Please tell me, Glad. If you've got a friend you surely don't want to keep it from me?

Oh, all right, Inquisitive, laughed the girl and her face was all gay and sparkling again. When she frowned and her mouth closed in a downward line she could look quite sullen. It was no easy disposition to deal with. He's a very nice boy, very posh, and with pots of money.

Have you seen much of him?

A bit—in Liverpool. He came to the show lots of times.

And he takes you out?

Glad nodded.

Did he give you that sapphire pin too?

Yes. What of it? It's nothing to him.

What's his name?

Jimmy Smith. Any objection?

Gladys turns the tables on Laurie, tomorrow.

[illegible] Boys Interrupt [illegible] Sleep to Get an [illegible] Start for Mountain

[illegible]

Was he on guard, Mums, so nobody could get in to harm us? he asked.

Yes, that is just what he was doing, I said. He sat there all night guarding you. Don't you boys think you ought to be pretty grateful to him instead of resenting his not wanting you to waken me?

They scuffed their slippers uneasily.

Aw! Auntie Madge, I didn't think. I'm sorry, exclaimed Roderick, the chief critic of Jim Junior, echoed his disclaimer.

Dicky Has Returned

It's all right now, I told them hastily, for I had that upon my mind which I could not tell them but which was tormenting me sorely. Now hurry back to your room and get dressed for the journey in the clothing I laid out for you last night. But on your way ask Jim not to leave the hall until I see him. I'll call him in just a minute.

Okay! they chorused and departed upon the word. Hurriedly I donned a lounging robe and slippers and going to the door beckoned to Jim who evidently because of my message was watching my door.

Did Mr. Graham get back safely from Patchogue? I asked.

Oh! sure, Jim replied comfortably, and my accelerated pulses quieted. He brought a man named Williams with him and they're both asleep. Mr. Graham told me to wake them at a certain time this morning and then he was going to wake you. But the boys did that. I hope it wasn't too early. Mr. Graham, he said he wanted you to sleep until the last possible minute.

No, it wasn't too early, I assured him. I shall need a little more time than I thought. When you waken Mr. Graham please tell him that the boys and I are already awake.

I'll do that, Ma'am. It won't be long now anyway, Jim rejoined, consulting his watch. Now if you don't mind I think I'd better get Katie out so she can be getting breakfast. Then it will be about time to wake up Mr. Graham.

You no need worry your fool head ofer getting Katie oudt. Katie's ironical voice sounded from the entrance to the rear stairway. Frigidaire Summer Showing Now in Progress at Haberman's

West Center Street Firm Shows New Refrigerator

Every Model Equipped With Super-Freezer; Proper Temperature Provided Throughout

Right now is the time to consider buying that new electric refrigerator. Right now is the time to do a little shopping around to see what the different refrigerators are offering. And while you are about it do not fail to visit the display at Haberman's, the Frigidaire summer showing. It's in progress right now and every day crowds of people are coming in and getting an entirely new conception of what an electric refrigerator can do these days.

Every year Frigidaire has offered new improvements but this year it has done something out of the ordinary. It has equipped every model with it's latest development—the Super Freezer. This improvement is not an added feature but a basic improvement. It enables the 1935 Frigidaire to deliver better refrigeration at a lower cost. It makes possible a complete refrigeration service.

The Super Freezer provides the right temperature for every purpose—all in the same cabinet. There's fast freezing—for making ice cubes and desserts; frozen storage—for meats and ice cream; extra cold storage for keeping a reserve supply of ice cubes; moist storage for vegetables and fruits, and normal storage below 50 degrees for foods requiring dry frosty cold. Unquestionably it is the greatest step forward in electric refrigeration of recent years. See the beautiful new Frigidaire now at 295 West Center street. Get the truly amazing story of the Super Freezer.

But a few years ago this type of electrical refrigeration would have cost several hundred dollars but today the ordinary home can benefit from the advantages of Frigidaire at a cost of but a few cents per day.

SAFETY CAB OFFERS COMPLETE SERVICE

Company Cares for Machines in Addition to Taxi Facilities

In addition to their taxi facilities the Safety Cab company also offers excellent car washing and repair service.

Their shop is located at 126 Union street where drivers can always have their car washed properly and thoroughly at the reasonable price of 60 cents. Clyde Wilson, who is well known in Marion for his ability to wash cars expertly, is in charge of washing and polishing. The price of the car wash also includes a thorough vacuum cleaning of the interior of one's car. Auto owners are more than satisfied with the results, as their customers will readily testify.

The repair department of the shop is under the care of Roy Lane who knows his machines. In the future whenever you have need of repairs on your car give Roy a trial. His work will please you. They will call for and deliver your car. Their phone number is 2803.

Motor Tester at Danner Buick Co. Finds Car Faults

Do you know that large numbers of new cars are running far below their peak performance due to neglect or faulty adjustments?

Most cars are running with incorrect ignition or carburetor adjustments, uneven or weak compression, sticky valves, fouled spark plugs, leaky gaskets, weak condensers, pitted ignition points or some other easily corrected automobile fault, all of which can be diagnosed and accurately corrected by the Danner Buick company's motor tester and gas analyzer.

By taking your car to Danner's regularly for motor tests you will reduce your operating and upkeep expense, save repairs, protect your motor and maintain your car in perfect operating condition at all times. The Danner Buick company is located at 245 North Main street.

Your Health

BY DR. R. S. COPELAND

House Fly

That miserable pest, the common house fly, has annoyed mankind ever since history began. It is busy in the summer months and is one of the evil accompaniments of warm weather.

In reality it is an evidence of poor sanitation. The fly is disliked for its buzzing and the physical annoyance of its presence. Rarely are we reminded that this insect is a serious menace to health. We are familiar with some of the dangers of flies but too often are careless about them. We are too apt to tolerate these insects which carry the germs of disease on their feet and bodies and deposit them on our food.

Twice as many babies die in houses where flies are numerous as in those homes where flies are carefully excluded by screens. I cannot overstate the real menace of this household pest.

Since flies breed rapidly, are very active and quickly disappear from sight when disturbed, it is often difficult to exterminate them completely. Each female fly lays about one hundred and twenty eggs at one time and it takes only ten days for a full grown fly to develop from an egg.

Every effort must be made to prevent their breeding. This is best accomplished by the frequent and regular removal of wet paper, garbage and other decaying substances. Of course it is not possible to kill all the flies and for this reason we must guard against them by protecting beverages and foods that may be contaminated if exposed. Baby carriages should be covered by a netting and baby's food guarded carefully from contamination.

During the summer months particularly it is important that the home be kept clean, neat and free from exposed foods that attract flies. Waste materials should be placed in a covered can and it is a good plan to cleanse the can frequently.

Where flies collect it is advisable to use a poison bait. This is best made by mixing one pound of sodium arsenate, two gallons of molasses and ten gallons of water. This concoction may be sprayed on walls and used in cellars and receptacles where flies gather.

During the summer months when visits to the country are frequent avoid those places where flies abound. Bear in mind that when flies swarm about it is an indication of filth and possible health hazard in the immediate neighborhood. Avoid purchasing foodstuffs in places where precautions are not taken to guard against this innocent looking but germ-laden insect.

Perishable foods should be kept in a refrigerator and all exposed food adequately screened from flies and dirt. It is in those communities where no attempt is made to guard against the fly that summer diseases are encountered and the health of the child as well as the adult is endangered.

COOL AIR FOR GUESTS AT SARATOGA GRILL

Fresh Air at Proper Temperature provided by Elaborate System

Do you enjoy [illegible] your lunch and its refreshing beverage in a properly cooled and ventilated atmosphere?

You will find just this condition existing at one of Marion's leading restaurants, the Saratoga Grill located at [illegible] West Center street.

Stepping from a sidewalk temperature of 95 degrees or thereabouts these days you marvel that within a few paces you may sit and relax at an even temperature as low as 70 to 75 degrees, and this temperature without a draft.

Mr. S. W. [illegible], proprietor, installed a Frigidaire air conditioning unit last year to make his place a more comfortable spot for his customers. This year he has added a second unit which aids materially in keeping the entire restaurant at an even temperature.

If one has never yet visited the Saratoga Grill in these hot days [illegible] you truly cannot know just what you are missing. Once you've experienced the thrill of entering the Saratoga right off the hot sidewalk you will be glad to rush there at every opportunity.

How Will You Like your New Relations?

You are a bride whose days are filled with romance—and practical problems! You have foods to buy. The spare bedroom needs draperies and blankets. You must have a telephone installed. There is the medicine chest to be filled with simple yet reliable supplies . . . insurance to think of. And the generous check from Uncle Michael . . . you are planning on a new car or a grand piano with that!

When you make each unaccustomed purchase, you establish new relations. Whether they will bring you joy depends on your care and forethought in choosing the right relations.

But inexperience need not turn you timid. Read the advertisements in this newspaper. They will tell you what to buy, where to buy and how much to spend. They will bring you the knowledge you need. They will help you to find "new relations" that will become ready helpers and faithful friends.
